

2014 Le Pré du Col Vineyard Pinot Noir

Our 16 acre estate-farmed vineyard on the Ribbon Ridge has earned incredible merits in a short time. Planted in 2006, it became Wine Spectator's #14 wine in the world only 10 years later, saying a lot about this amazing terroir. This is one of the finest wines in our stable, going from strength to strength over the past 5 years.

The 2014 Le Pré du Col is black cherry in color and is incredibly vibrant with smooth, velvety tannins. It has intoxicating and heady aromas of mushroom, beef broth, warm freshly turned earth; followed by blueberries, black cherries and an umami savory element framed with toasted spices. The tell-tale cinnamon red hot candies are present this year as well.

This wine is medium bodied with a meaty, savory profile; it has a solid core of blueberries and bramble berries (which surround the vineyard). Farmed using the Biodynamic method, keeping low yields and harvesting for acidity, Le Pré du Col is a very balanced wine capable of immediate pleasure and long term ageing. As well, this is one of our more intriguing wines to pair with food as it is quite diverse, being able to handle red meats, poultry, mushrooms, cheeses and more.
